

Communications Tree

The purpose of the Communications Tree is to simplify communications
And to limit unnecessary links.

All Board members should strive to limit their communications to a person or group of people/committee members that are directly impacted by the specific message being discussed.